WHITE EAGLE LODGE (AUSTRALASIA) January 2010

(Walking through into a new year, a new vibration)

Dear Friend

Happy New Year to you and yours!

Christmas seems such a long time ago now as we march very positively into the new and exciting vibration of 2010. Here at the Temple and also in our personal lives there has been a great urge to ‘clean out’ old stuff on many levels. This ‘cleaning out’ process is a wonderful way to move energy and allow new vibrations, new energy into our lives. Have you too felt this impulse to ‘clean’?

With this in mind our very first retreat this year, as you will see in the enclosed Star Retreat brochure, is ‘Living with No Regrets.’ This week will be a wonderful opportunity for those participating to ‘clean out’ our regrets on an inner level, opening ourselves to the inflow of new energy, healing and the very beautiful vibration of love and peace.

The following is a copy of an email from the World Wide Lodge Leader Jenny Dent. As you will see when reading Jenny, along with Stuart Neill and a few other very dedicated souls, are Trustees of a Charity called Star Action. It is truly amazing how a small band of dedicated, energetic people can achieve so much. Visiting the web site listed at the end of the article is inspirational particularly when you view the photo gallery. You will, we are sure, be greatly moved by their achievements.

“My dear brethren,

Just a little note to let you know that as usual at this time of year I am making a visit to India and Sri Lanka on behalf of my separate little charity, Star Action*. I shall be accompanied by Stuart, my co-founder/trustee, and together we will be monitoring all our ‘brotherhood in action’ projects that we set up in Sri Lanka in the wake of the 2004 tsunami, and establishing more projects connected with healing the situation following the terrible civil war. In India we are spending time at our ‘Save the Babies Orphanage’ and looking further into our project to create a home for destitute elderly.

Our vision for Star Action is truly to put brotherhood into action, caring for all ages and needs. Obviously what we can do is just a ‘small drop in the ocean’ but in all we do we are endeavouring to bring the magic of the Star to facilitate the getting of aid to where it is really needed. (I am sure we have all been struck by the difficult situation encountered in getting aid in Haiti to those who need it following the tragic earthquake.)

As you are already aware we are also doing Star Action work in West Africa, building a teenage community centre in the very deprived community of Asiakwa in Eastern Ghana. Dear Fred and Hamida are there now, not only facilitating our Star Action project, but also creating a White Eagle Centre and home for our White Eagle family in Ghana. I am absolutely delighted that my Marathon Swim has raised several thousand pounds for the White Eagle work in Ghana and also a similar sum for the Star Action project.

As before, I am really grateful for your thoughts and prayers during my time in India and Sri Lanka. Another part of my work in Sri Lanka is spending time meditating in our Little Temple for World Peace, which although built under the aegis of Star Action, is deeply linked to our White Eagle Temples. Together with the Little Temple in Ghana, I see these both as like 'substations', helping in the earthing of the light of the Star in Asia and in Africa (where we have no White Eagle Temples)—I believe they are very much part of our golden chain encompassing the whole world. Our dear spiritual grandmother Ylana, feels this very strongly with me and will be meditating from New Lands, connecting with me and Stuart during our time in Sri Lanka. (This will be from 6th – 19th February.).....

Your Sister Golden Radiance
(White Eagle's name for Jenny)

* As said, this is a SEPARATE charity, as the terms of our Trust Deed do not encompass practical aid projects. Please see our website www.staraction.org if you wish to know more.

Marjorie Jenkins

Marjorie was a member of the Lodge since February 1990.. She quickly became involved in the healing ministry and faithfully served as a Healer for many years. Her beautiful gentle heart and service was so valued by the team of healers throughout Australia and New Zealand and I know her dedicated service helped, supported and encouraged many patients.

Marjorie loved the times she came to the Retreat Centre and freely yet gently shared her innate wisdom with others on retreat.

When possible Marjorie and John would join us for our monthly services of worship in the Temple and it was a really sad day when the journey to Maleny became too much for Marjorie. Their presence and their special energy have been missed.

Marjorie will always be remembered as a gentle, caring, loving and compassionate soul and such a lady.

We feel quite sure Marjorie has been welcomed into the spirit world with 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant.'

The Way to Pray

The way to pray is to put yourself into complete attunement with the spirit of love. Be in it, live in it. Think not of yourself and of your earthly need, but of God. Of yourself you are nothing: but when you dwell in the centre of the Star, or that heavenly light, you become great because you are then consciously with God and God is with you; and all things work together for good when you are with good or with God.

White Eagle (Quiet Mind P 14)

Dear One, we sincerely pray that this year unfolds for you in positive ways you have never dreamed of. May your heart be filled with the Light of God. Please just take a moment to breathe in God's Light and feel it filling every cell of your body.

God bless you and yours.

THE MOUNTAIN STORY

A son and his father were walking on the mountains. Suddenly, his son falls, hurts himself and screams: "Aaahhh!" To his surprise, he hears the voice repeating, somewhere in the mountains: "Aaahhh" Curious, he yells: "Who are you?" He receives the answer: "Who are you?" Angered at the response, he screams: "Coward!" He receives the answer: "Coward!" He looks to his father and asks: "What is going on?" The father smiles and says: "My son, pay attention." And then the father screams to the mountain: "I admire you!" The voice answers: "I admire you". Again the father screams: "You are a champion!" The voice answers: "You are a champion!" The boy is surprised, but does not understand. Then the father explains: "People call this ECHO, but really this is LIFE. It gives you back everything you say or do. Our life is simply a reflection of our actions. If you want more love in the world, create more love in your heart. If you want more competence in your team, improve your competence. This relationship applies to everything, in all aspects of life; life will give you back everything you have given to it." YOUR LIFE IS NOT A COINCIDENCE. IT'S A REFLECTION OF YOU!

I Love this and hope you do too:

"An elderly Chinese woman had two large pots, each hung on the ends of a pole which she carried across her neck.

One of the pots had a crack in it while the other pot was perfect and always delivered a full portion of water.

At the end of the long walks from the stream to the house, the cracked pot arrived only half full. For a full two years this went on daily, with the woman bringing home only one and a half pots of water.

Of course, the perfect pot was proud of its accomplishments. But the poor cracked pot was ashamed of its own imperfection, and miserable that it could only do half of what it had been made to do.

After two years of what it perceived to be bitter failure, it spoke to the woman one day by the stream.

"I am ashamed of myself, because this crack in my side causes water to leak out all the way back to the house."

The old woman smiled, "Did you notice that there are flowers on your side of the path, but not on the other pot's side? That's because I have always known about your flaw, so I planted flower seeds on your side of the path, and every day while we walk back you water them. For two years I have been able to pick these beautiful flowers to decorate the table. With you being just the way you are, there would not be this beauty to grace our house."

Each of us has our own unique flaw. But it's the cracks and flaws we each have that make our lives together so very interesting and rewarding. You've just got to take each person for what they are and look for the good in them."

RESPECT YOUR BROTHER, YOUR SISTER

"The true Light is a gentle love which, rising in you, causes you to look on the world with understanding and compassion and respect. When you respect the soul of your brother, your sister you respect his/her life in every way. This gentle spirit, this respect one for another, must come. For this is the generation of the one true Light, and this true Light is that of love."

Keep Hope Burning

You must keep hope burning within your souls like a lamp burning upon the Altar. Keep hope bright! Those commanded to guide, to help, to succour you during your tests and trials have their finger upon the pulse of each; upon your individual lives we have our hand; and if things appear chaotic, remember you have to learn a lesson – a much needed lesson – and whilst you allow your mind or emotions to remain chaotic, you stand beside your lesson book refusing to learn. But if you light the lamp of hope in your mind you are meekly receiving, absorbing that beautiful lesson which God, in His/Her divine and perfect love and wisdom, is offering to you.

PEACE BE STILL

The Master's voice, calls and says: "Peace, be still," – be calm. The Master has the advantage of a higher view than any earthly person. He knows that the all-seeing eye of the Creator is watching, that the hierarchies are drawing close; that God is omnipotent, and that man can be guided at the right moment. The law of spirit operates, despite all fears. Therefore, if the individual – yourself, for instance – would serve God and his fellow, he must learn to attune himself to all-good; to withdraw from conflict and turmoil on the lower level and rise to the mountain tops. This procedure will not defy or contradict his reason, if he accepts the divine will. Man has to learn to seek first of all the kingdom of heaven, the places of stillness and quiet at the highest level of which he is capable; and then the heavenly influences can pour into him, re-create him, and use him for the salvation of mankind.
